presents:

Making a Connection: Understanding Trauma and Recognizing Resiliency

November 3, 2016

Sheraton Detroit Metro Airport Hotel

Romulus, MI

9:00 a.m. - 4:30 p.m.

Target Audience: Judges, referees, court staff, attorneys, LGALs, foster care and CPS specialists, private agencies, tribes, mental health professionals, CASAs, and Foster Care Review Board Members.

Summary: Children in the child welfare system are significantly impacted by trauma and loss. Effective advocacy is strengthened when child welfare professionals employ a developmental and trauma-informed perspective. This training will assist attendees in understanding the scope and impact of trauma and adverse childhood experiences on development. Participants will learn skills to build resiliency in traumatized children, tools to assess childhood trauma, and what trauma informed treatment looks like. In addition, reducing secondary trauma within the child welfare workforce will be addressed.
