ANNOUNCEMENT

The Criminal History Section of the Michigan State Police is pleased to announce that Mr. Ted Kilvington has accepted a new position within our organization as the section's Quality Control Auditor. Mr. Kilvington has spent the last four years working closely with the many courts throughout the State of Michigan. Although, he will not be training court personnel any longer, he will still work with the courts, prosecutors, and law enforcement on cleaning up incomplete criminal history records. Please contact Mr. Kilvington for all your Open, Deferred, Pending, and Transferred Case Report requests. You may contact him at:

KilvingtonT@michigan.gov
(517) 582-0556

Please welcome Mr. Todd Self as the new MSP Court Reporting Coordinator! Mr. Self has previously served as a Non-Criminal Justice Auditor, ICHAT Coordinator, and Dispatcher with the Michigan State Police as well as serving for 20 years as a law enforcement officer with the Kent County Sheriff Department and the Portland Police Department. Mr. Self will be your primary contact for all court reporting EJUD, MJUD, and CJUD questions. You may contact him at:

SelfT@michigan.gov
(517) 284-3106

Please direct all other questions to the Criminal History Section main line.
