 Describe
☐ Mandatory review hearing: The court may revoke probation and impose sentence at this hearing. At the review hearing within 42 days of the juvenile's 19th birthday, the court may extend jurisdiction over the juvenile or impose a sentence, including incarceration.
☐ Final review hearing: If the court determines that the best interests of the public would be served by imposing any other sentence provided by law for an adult offender, the court may impose the sentence, including incarceration.

RIGHT TO AN ATTORNEY:

The juvenile has a right to be represented by an attorney. If the juvenile wants an attorney, you should hire one immediately so the attorney will be ready on the hearing date. If you or those responsible for the juvenile's support are financially unable or refuse to provide an attorney, the court should be contacted immediately about an appointed attorney. If an attorney is appointed, the juvenile, and/or the persons responsible for the juvenile's support, may be responsible for paying the costs of an appointed attorney after an ability to pay is determined.

Court rules require the appointment of an attorney for juveniles in certain cases. If the juvenile falls under this category, an attorney will be appointed.

PROBATION VIOLATION HEARING:

The juvenile has the right to be present at the hearing, to be represented by an attorney, to have the petitioner prove the probation violation by a preponderance of the evidence, to have the court order any witnesses to appear at the hearing, to question witnesses against the juvenile, to remain silent, and to testify at the hearing. The juvenile is not entitled to a jury at the hearing on a violation of probation.

If you require accommodations to use the court because of a disability or if you require a foreign language interpreter to help you to fully participate in court proceedings, please contact the court immediately to make arrangements.
