

LEARN TO MEDIATE!

48-hour Domestic Relations Mediator Training

TRAINING DESCRIPTION

This training program is designed to teach participants the skills necessary to act as mediators in facilitating the resolution of both community and domestic relations disputes. Through a combination of role plays, demonstrations, large group discussions, and activities, this highly interactive training will take participants through the entire mediation process. This training is approved by the State Court Administrative Office-MCR 3.216.

WHAT IS MEDIATION?

Mediation is a non-adversarial, affordable, and time saving choice to resolving conflict. Mediation is a confidential process where individuals have the opportunity brainstorm and negotiate a mutually agreeable solution. A mediator facilitates communication and promotes voluntary decision-making by the parties.
