Advanced Practice Skills – Mediation Training

Advanced Practice Skills – Mediation Training, a two-credit hour elective class will be taught at the Grand Rapids Campus of the Western Michigan University Cooley Law School from August 19 to 21, and August 24 to 26 from 9:15 a.m. to 5 p.m. with an hour for lunch. This course satisfies the Michigan State Court Administrative Office requirements for mediation training under Michigan Court Rule 2.411. Students must be present for all 40 hours of the training to meet the Court Rule requirements.

There are several seats in this class being made available to local attorneys who would like to audit the class as a guest. If you would like to be considered for this class, please contact WMU Cooley's Registrar at registrar@cooley.edu to enroll. Details for audits are located below.

WMU Cooley Law School Student Policy Manual:

Section 3.03. Course for Audit by Lawyer Students. Lawyers may audit any course at the Law School.

A. Tuition Rate. WMU-Cooley graduates, and lawyers who have graduated from any other law school within the last five years, will be charged only one half of the regular tuition unless they are required to take a course as a result of discipline administered by the Attorney Discipline Board, in which case they will be charged full tuition. All other lawyers will be charged full tuition to audit. Any lawyer wishing to take a course for credit will be charged full tuition.

Current tuition is 31 and more credits = $1,575 per credit hour (JD Level II)

B. Fees. A student activity fee will also be charged, and grounds maintenance fee may be charged depending on the campus where the class will be taken.

C. Preparedness. The preparedness policy will not apply unless the lawyer is taking the course for credit.

D. Attendance. If the lawyer student is taking the course for Audit/Credit, notification will be sent when the maximum number of absences have been reached, with the advice that if the maximum is exceeded, the lawyer student will not receive an Audit/Credit for the course.
