2.02 Ordinary Medical Expense Amounts

- 2.02(A) On average, families spend $357 for one child annually on ordinary medical expenses. The Ordinary Medical Expense Averages table states the amounts families are presumed to spend on ordinary medical expenses. Courts may add amounts to cover higher expenses. (2013 MCSF 3.04(B)).

| Ordinary Medical Expense Averages | | |
|-----------------------------------|------------|----------|
| Children | Annual | Monthly |
| 1 | $357.00 | $29.75 |
| 2 | $715.00 | $59.58 |

2.03 General Care Support Tables

- 2.03(A) Based on the estimated costs of raising children, the General Care Equation (2013 MCSF 3.02(B)) uses variable percentages of family income to determine a child support obligation. The General Care Support Tables contain those figures and percentages exclude medical or child care expenses. This supplement contains net family income levels adjusted using the December 2011 Consumer Price Index (CPI-U Detroit) from its 1985 original base.

3. EXPLANATORY MATERIALS

3.01 Substantial Changes in Circumstance Reviews

3.01(A) When a friend of the court office is not obligated to initiate a review under MCL 552.517(1), it must conduct one pursuant to MCL 552.517b(9) when a party presents evidence to the office that a substantial change in circumstances has occurred after the last support order was entered. While similar to changed circumstances that a court could consider when deciding whether to grant a motion, the factors cited in this section only apply to determining when the office must conduct a support review beyond those required by MCL 552.517(1).

3.01(B) A substantial change in circumstances to warrant a review of the support amount occurs when any of the following situations arise:

- (1) The payer begins or stops receiving social security benefits.
- (2) A child receives social security benefits based on the support payer’s earnings record, or a reduction occurs in those benefits by $50 per month or more.

- (3) A health issue affects a party's ability to earn income for a substantial period (a permanent or long-term disability or injury, a lengthy hospital stay and recuperation, etc.).
- (4) A parent's income changes by 75 percent or more.
- (5) A parent receives a call to active military duty likely to last at least six months and result in a significant income reduction.
- (6) Significant changes in the medical expenses of a party.
- (7) Changes in the physical, mental, or educational needs of a child.
- (8) A significant change in financial circumstances because of a modification of the payer's other support obligations.

3.02 Determining Which Parent Should Maintain Health Care Coverage

3.02(A) MCL 552.605a contains the statutory requirements regarding provision of health care coverage.

- (1) Support orders must specify which parent should maintain coverage. To prevent ordering duplicate coverage, extra costs, and unnecessary enforcement actions, avoid automatically requiring both parties to provide coverage.
- (2) When appropriate, the court may allow a parent's obligation to provide coverage to be met through alternative means, for example if insurance is available through a parent's spouse or another family member, or purchased privately. A parent should be required to secure health care coverage immediately if alternative coverage for the children stops. For example, an order could state:

The (defendant/plaintiff) shall maintain health care coverage for the child(ren). At the option of the (defendant/plaintiff), coverage can be obtained by purchasing it from a private company or by enrolling the child(ren) in coverage available through a family member.

3.02(B) Consider the following when determining which parent must maintain the children's health care coverage:

- (1) Do the parents agree who should maintain the children's coverage?
 - (a) If yes, incorporate the agreement as the recommendation. A detailed review is not necessary.
 - (b) If no, proceed to (2).
- (2) Does only one parent have coverage available through employment or self-employment?
 - (a) If yes, proceed to (3).
 - (b) If both parents have coverage available through employment, proceed to (4).
 - (c) If neither has coverage available through employment, proceed to (5).
- (3) Only one parent has coverage available through employment. Is the parent's coverage at or below the reasonable cost of coverage?

MICHIGAN CHILD SUPPORT FORMULA - SUPPLEMENT 2013

- (a) If yes, record that as the recommendation.
 - (b) If no, proceed to (5).
- (4) Both parents have coverage available through employment, but do not agree on who should maintain coverage. Compare the plans with the following questions.
- (a) Does either parent's coverage exceed the reasonable cost of coverage?
 - (i) If no, proceed to (b).
 - (ii) If one plan is available at a reasonable cost, record that plan as the recommendation.
 - (iii) If neither plan is available at a reasonable cost, proceed to (5).
 - (b) Does the child have special health care needs (e.g., high number of prescription drugs, eyeglasses, etc.)? Does one plan cover these expenses better? If so, choose that plan.
 - (c) If the plans offer similar services, does one offer services close to where the child resides? If so, choose the plan that covers the area where the child resides.
 - (d) If there is not a significant difference in services or coverage area, so long as it is available at a reasonable cost, choose the support recipient's plan.
- (5) If neither parent has coverage available through employment at a reasonable cost, is there other private coverage available to either parent?
- (a) A parent's spouse or other family member maintains coverage, and is able and willing to cover child on plan.
 - (b) A parent is eligible for group coverage through another organization.
