On order of the Court, notice of the proposed changes and an opportunity for comment in writing and at a public hearing having been provided, and consideration having been given to the comments received, the following amendment is adopted, effective September 1, 2014.

[The present language is amended as indicated below by underlining for new text and strikeover for text that has been deleted.]

Rule 3.705 Issuance of Personal Protection Orders

(A)-(B)[Unchanged.]

(C) Pursuant to 18 USC 2265(d)(3), a court is prohibited from making available to the public on the Internet any information regarding the registration of, filing of a petition for, or issuance of an order under this rule if such publication would be likely to publicly reveal the identity or location of the party protected under the order.

Staff Comment: The amendment of MCR 3.705(C) prohibits publication of information on the Internet that could reveal the identity or location of the protected party.

The staff comment is not an authoritative construction by the Court.

I, Larry S. Royster, Clerk of the Michigan Supreme Court, certify that the foregoing is a true and complete copy of the order entered at the direction of the Court.
