Hello,
I am the ADR clerk for the 54-A District court and I support the change of reducing the response time from 28 to 14 days. I find that most parties respond well before the 28 days. Some even file their response the same day the case evaluation was held. Having to wait 28 days after case evaluation holds up scheduling the next action date of the file. I think 14 days is a reasonable amount of time. It also parallels other motions such as motion for installments which also has a 14 day waiting period.
