This email shall serve to confirm that I have discussed, read, and considered the comments of Kyle B. Trevas and Janet Mistele and adopt their comments as my own.

I would note that as a public defender our job is challenging. I would find it more helpful to have funding for experts and investigators without the need to ask the court. Why should I have to ask for something that due process requires. We should be focusing on fixing the short comings of the system as opposed to creating new rules.

Sincerely,

Thomas J. Seger (p65609)
