FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

LANSING, MI, April 30, 2015 – Chief Justice Robert P. Young, Jr., made the following statement today, marking the 50th anniversary of the Michigan Court of Appeals:

“Judges dedicated to the rule of law and to the efficient administration of justice are the key attributes of a successful court. I am proud to have been one of many such judges who have served on the Court of Appeals and extend congratulations and best wishes for another half century of success in serving the public.”

The Court of Appeals was created by the Michigan Constitution of 1963, enabling legislation was passed in 1964, and the Court began operations in 1965.
