

Clerkships with the Michigan Supreme Court

The Justices of the Michigan Supreme Court screen, interview, and hire their own law clerks. Persons desiring a clerkship with a Supreme Court Justice may send a cover letter, résumé, law school transcripts, and one writing sample directly to the Justice(s) for whom they would like to Clerk.

Justice Bridget Mary McCormack is currently accepting clerkship applications for the 2015-2016 term. Please click <here> for details.

Please send clerkship applicant materials to:
Michigan Hall of Justice
925 W. Ottawa Street
P.O. Box 30052
Lansing, MI 48909

Michigan Supreme Court clerkships typically start in the late summer or early fall and last for one year, though work extensions may be granted beyond the initial year.
